BODY METHOD STEP 3: CLEANSE GENTLY

Ritual Cleansing Bar - Bloom

hope and handcrafted
Luxury In Every Bar...

Essences of lemongrass & hyssop are bursting from this bar!

Our flagship product and the very first in a long line of handcrafted clean beauty products, MIG's Ritual Cleansing Bars have a ten-year history of changing lives. You wouldn't think a little ole bar of soap could hold so much power, but the truth is, when we activate the soul and nurture the body with living essences and potent authentic earth ingredients, everything seems to come alive.

After each small batch of Ritual Cleansing bars are poured with a unique blend of living botanicals, raw honey, and wildcrafted herbs, they rest and percolate for six weeks before being released into the world. An extensive process that sets us apart. Our formulation stands alone as the only soap bar that pushes the boundaries of nature and science to deliver a fundamental product that no one should be without... ever.

Because truly, there's nothing like a soft cleansing of the body & soul with real soap combined with a True Beauty ritual. It's always good to be reminded that hope can be found in the simplest of things... even this little treasure you hold in your hands.

Rich in boundless goodness that will make you feel silky and smooth... so go ahead and soak in all of life's goodness. The best Cleansing Bar in the world for soothing and gently cleansing without stripping or drying out your skin. There's nothing quite as wonderful as the feeling of peace and restfulness nurturing your soul right when you step out of the shower or bath. Sometimes it's the simple things in life that bring the most joy.

A cleansing bar that sustains balance and collaborates with your skin's own rhythm. Too good not to mmmm and ahhhh...
